Introduction

The current issue of Financial Sciences is a collection of articles addressing various areas of financial research, and many of them refer to widely recognized problems of corporate finance, for example those by Robert Kowalak and Bartłomiej Jabłoński, and the paper by Zhao Li and Yujing Chu also covers that area. Chamil W. Senarathne refers in his article to religious conditioning of financial markets. The problems of taxation are presented by Tetiana Paientko, Valeriy Oparin and Yana Sarnetska. We hope that the variety of these papers will be interesting for our readers.
